IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED between the plaintiff, United States of America, through Matthew Segal, Assistant U.S. Attorney, and the defendant, James E. Bledsoe, through his counsel Linda C. Harter, Chief Assistant Federal Defender, that, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3145(a) the conditions of pretrial release be modified.

Specifically, the parties agree that condition number two which reads "Your travel is restricted to the State of California without the

1 prior consent of the Pretrial Services Officer"<sup>1</sup> be changed to "Your 2 travel is restricted to the United States of America and, with the 3 exception of emergencies, is subject to prior approval from the 4 Pretrial Services Officer. In the event of an emergency, such as the 5 illness of a close family member, you must contact and obtain approval 6 from pretrial services as soon as practicable."

7 The parties agree to this stipulation and counsel for the 8 defendant conferred with the Pretrial Service Officers in Sacramento 9 and in San Diego. Both Officers indicated they had no objection to 10 this modification.
